The Alte Feuerwache is a 19th Century firefighters' complex, refurbished and used as a community centre. It is located in the Agnus Viertel (Quarter) of Cologne, just north of the city centre, about a 15 – 20 minute walk from the main train station (Hauptbahnhof). A rudimentary map is attached.

Cab fare from the Cologne main train station will cost about seven Euros.

In lieu of walking, public transportation is available from the station. Take the No. 5 tram (U-Bahn) towards Ossendorf (stairs to the platform are located near the main entrance and information desk). Get off at the first stop, Friesenplatz. Transfer to one of the following trams:

- No. 12 (towards Merkenich)
- No. 15 (towards Chorweiler)

The second stop on either will be Hansaring. Exit (via the stairs, escalator, or lift) at the front of the tram in the direction of “Krefelderstraße” (Krefelder Stasse) and “Weidengasse”. The large ground level complex is built on the median of Hansaring (the street). If taking the stairs, turn right at the top (or continue straight on from the top of the escalator or when emerging from the lift). Proceed beyond the staircase labeled “S Hansaring” to the corner of Hansaring and Krefelder Strasse (left side, with a small pizzeria on one corner and a print shop on the other).

Cross Hansaring and follow Krefelder Strasse to Maybach Strasse (the next corner). Turn right and cross Krefelder Strasse. Follow Maybach Strasse one short block, and bear left (still on Maybach) at the bus stop shelter (at Lübecker Strasse), to a rectangular open space – Sudermanplatz. Walk diagonally across to the Deutsche Post / Post Bank (German Post Office – yellow), which is at the corner of Melchior Strasse. Turn left on Melchior Strasse and proceed approximately half a block to a gate on the left opening into a large courtyard. This is the Alte Feuerwache. Follow the signs to the correct building and room.
